Investments in derivatives, registered investment companies, business development companies, and pooled investment vehicles should be reported in those categories. Do not report those investments based on related or underlying portfolio assets. Cash equivalents include bank deposits, certificates of deposit, bankers' acceptances and similar bank instruments.

Some assets could be classified into more than one category or require discretion about which category applies. You may use your own internal methodologies and the conventions of your service providers in determining how to categorize assets, so long as the methodologies or conventions are consistently applied and consistent with information you report internally and to current and prospective clients. However, you should not double count assets, and your responses must be consistent with any instructions or other guidance relating to this Section.

In this Item, we ask for information about your disciplinary history and the disciplinary history of all your advisory affiliates. We use this information to determine whether to grant your application for registration, to decide whether to revoke your registration or to place limitations on your activities as an investment adviser, and to identify potential problem areas to focus on during our on-site examinations. One event may result in "yes" answers to more than one of the questions below. Your advisory affiliates are: (1) all of your current employees (other than employees performing only clerical, administrative, support or similar functions); (2) all of your officers, partners, or directors (or any person performing similar functions); and (3) all persons directly or indirectly controlling you or controlled by you. If you are a "separately identifiable department or division" (SID) of a bank, see the Glossary of Terms to determine who your advisory affiliates are.

If you are registered or registering with the SEC or if you are an exempt reporting adviser, you may limit your disclosure of any event listed in Item 11 to ten years following the date of the event. Item 12 Small Businesses

The SEC is required by the Regulatory Flexibility Act to consider the effect of its regulations on small entities. In order to do this, we need to determine whether you meet the definition of "small business" or "small organization" under rule 0-7.

Answer this Item 12 only if you are registered or registering with the SEC and you indicated in response to Item 5.F.(2)(c) that you have regulatory assets under management of less than $25 million. You are not required to answer this Item 12 if you are filing for initial registration as a state adviser, amending a current state registration, or switching from SEC to state registration.

For purposes of this Item 12 only:

- Total Assets refers to the total assets of a firm, rather than the assets managed on behalf of clients. In determining your or another person's total assets, you may use the total assets shown on a current balance sheet (but use total assets reported on a consolidated balance sheet with subsidiaries included, if that amount is larger).
- Control means the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of a person, whether through ownership of securities, by contract, or otherwise. Any person that directly or indirectly has the right to vote 25 percent or more of the voting securities, or is entitled to 25 percent or more of the profits, of another person is presumed to control the other person.

Please see Form ADV Part 2A Item 5 for information about all fees and compensation received by the firm. // S2G has omitted from Section 7.A of Schedule D the general partners of its private fund general partners (ultimate general partners) which were formed for structuring or liability purposes. Further, certain funds make investments through blockers or splitters ("Specialty Vehicles") that were formed to facilitate investments for tax, regulatory or other reasons. The Specialty Vehicles are not treated as separate clients of the firm and otherwise not independently reported in any section of this Form ADV. The assets of such Specialty Vehicles have been aggregated with the funds to which they relate and are included in regulatory assets under management. S2G will provide a full list of omitted entities to the SEC upon request. // S2G has custody of private fund client assets because its related persons serve as the general partners of the funds. Cash and securities and the number of clients for which these related persons have custody are included in Item 9.B. // S2G has established special purpose vehicles (each an "SPV") to act as the general partners of its private funds. The SPVs have not separately registered with the Commission in reliance on the positions expressed in the ABA No-Action Letter dated December 8, 2005, and affirmed in the ABA No-Action Letter dated January 18, 2012.
