If the remaining amount is at least $10 billion in regulatory assets under management, complete Question (a). If the remaining amount is less than $10 billion in regulatory assets under management, complete Question (b).

Any regulatory assets under management reported in Item 5.D.(3)(d), (e), and (f) should not be reported below.

If you are a subadviser to a separately managed account, you should only provide information with respect to the portion of the account that you subadvise.

End of year refers to the date used to calculate your regulatory assets under management for purposes of your annual updating amendment . Mid-year is the date six months before the end of year date. Each column should add up to 100% and numbers should be rounded to the nearest percent.

Investments in derivatives, registered investment companies, business development companies, and pooled investment vehicles should be reported in those categories. Do not report those investments based on related or underlying portfolio assets. Cash equivalents include bank deposits, certificates of deposit, bankers' acceptances and similar bank instruments.

Some assets could be classified into more than one category or require discretion about which category applies. You may use your own internal methodologies and the conventions of your service providers in determining how to categorize assets, so long as the methodologies or conventions are consistently applied and consistent with information you report internally and to current and prospective clients. However, you should not double count assets, and your responses must be consistent with any instructions or other guidance relating to this Section.

B. Are you an adviser to any private fund?

If "yes," then for each private fund that you advise, you must complete a Section 7.B.\(1\) of Schedule D, except in certain circumstances described in the next sentence and in Instruction 6 of the Instructions to Part 1A. If you are registered or applying for registration with the SEC or reporting as an SEC exempt reporting adviser, and another SEC-registered adviser or SEC exempt reporting adviser reports this information with respect to any such private fund in Section 7.B.\(1\) of Schedule D of its Form ADV (e.g., if you are a subadviser), do not complete Section 7.B.\(1\) of Schedule D with respect to that private fund. You must, instead, complete Section 7.B.\(2\) of Schedule D.

In either case, if you seek to preserve the anonymity of a private fund client by maintaining its identity in your books and records in numerical or alphabetical code, or similar designation, pursuant to rule 204-2(d), you may identify the private fund in Section 7.B.\(1\) or 7.B.\(2\) of Schedule D using the same code or designation in place of the fund's name.

Schedule D - Miscellaneous

You may use the space below to explain a response to an Item or to provide any other information.

TWIS also offers its clients with strategic and dynamic asset allocation policies, risk hedging, portfolio construction, including investment manager structure, selection and ongoing evaluation, fund monitoring, and educational webcasts, seminars, and conferences. Please see TWIS’s Brochure for additional information about TWIS’s advisory services. TWIS has one or more related persons that are insurance agencies owned within a holding company structure known as Willis North America. They are affiliated via common control with TWIS’s parent company, Willis Towers Watson PLC. TWIS has no business dealings with these related persons in connection with the advisory services that TWIS provides to its clients, does not conduct shared operations with the related person, does not refer clients or business to the related person, and the related person does not refer prospective clients or business to TWIS, and does not share supervised persons or premises with TWIS. Further, TWIS has no reason to believe that its affiliation with these entities otherwise creates a conflict of interest in delivering its services to its clients. TWIS will, however, provide a list of these related persons upon request. TWIS also manages on a discretionary basis approximately $14.41 billion of collective investment trust ("CIT") assets as of December 31, 2025. These assets are not included as "regulatory assets under management" under Item 5.F(2)(a) in Part 1A for the reason that the services we provide with respect to these assets do not meet the definition of continuous and regular supervisory management services. With respect to the reporting of these assets here, we have chosen to categorize these assets as discretionary client assets for reasons that include (i) the relationship we have with the CIT trustee, under which our investment management services are not fully non-discretionary services (e.g., we retain full authority to reallocate assets among sub-advisors, but in engaging and effecting the termination of sub-advisors the CIT trustee plays an oversight role); and (ii) that we are identified in our contractual arrangement with the CIT trustee as fiduciary and an "investment manager" within the meaning of 3(38) of ERISA, at least to the extent of discretionary services we provide, with respect to these assets.
