ever dismissed, pursuant to a settlement agreement, an investment-related civil action brought against you or any advisory affiliate by a state or foreign financial regulatory authority?

Are you or any advisory affiliate now the subject of any civil proceeding that could result in a "yes" answer to any part of Item 11.H.(1)?

Item 12 Small Businesses

The SEC is required by the Regulatory Flexibility Act to consider the effect of its regulations on small entities. In order to do this, we need to determine whether you meet the definition of "small business" or "small organization" under rule 0-7.

Answer this Item 12 only if you are registered or registering with the SEC and you indicated in response to Item 5.F.(2)(c) that you have regulatory assets under management of less than $25 million. You are not required to answer this Item 12 if you are filing for initial registration as a state adviser, amending a current state registration, or switching from SEC to state registration.

For purposes of this Item 12 only:

- Total Assets refers to the total assets of a firm, rather than the assets managed on behalf of clients. In determining your or another person's total assets, you may use the total assets shown on a current balance sheet (but use total assets reported on a consolidated balance sheet with subsidiaries included, if that amount is larger).

Control means the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of a person, whether through ownership of securities, by contract, or otherwise. Any person that directly or indirectly has the right to vote 25 percent or more of the voting securities, or is entitled to 25 percent or more of the profits, of another person is presumed to control the other person.

Yes

No

A. Did you have total assets of $5 million or more on the last day of your most recent fiscal year?

If "yes," you do not need to answer Items 12.B. and 12.C.

B. Do you:

(1) control another investment adviser that had regulatory assets under management (calculated in response to Item 5.F.(2)(c) of Form ADV) of $25 million or more on the last day of its most recent fiscal year?

(2) control another person (other than a natural person) that had total assets of $5 million or more on the last day of its most recent fiscal year?

C. Are you:

(1) controlled by or under common control with another investment adviser that had regulatory assets under management (calculated in response to Item 5.F.(2)(c) of Form ADV) of $25 million or more on the last day of its most recent fiscal year?

(2) controlled by or under common control with another person (other than a natural person) that had total assets of $5 million or more on the last day of its most recent fiscal year?

Schedule D - Miscellaneous

You may use the space below to explain a response to an Item or to provide any other information.

Item 1.F.(2): Hartford Investment Management Company ("HIMCO") is currently operating under a hybrid model whereby employees are generally in the office Tuesday through Thursday and engage in remote work on Monday and Friday. However, the office is open all five days and employees can come in any weekday at their discretion. Items 5.C.(1) and 5.(D): A drop in HIMCO's investment company clients (from 25 to 11) caused the majority of the drop in total client count from last year's annual filing to this filing. However, this decrease was not due to HIMCO actually being terminated by any of its investment company clients. The decrease was caused by fourteen (14) of the unit investment trusts ("UITs") for which HIMCO served as portfolio consultant hitting their maturity date during 2025. Item 5.D: HIMCO generally counts its clients by legal entity. However, there are exceptions to this general practice. HIMCO manages two separate categories of assets for one of its insurance company clients: (a) insurance general and separate account assets; and (b) assets in certain separate accounts that rely on exemptions to registration under the Investment Company Act of 1940. HIMCO counts clients with respect to these categories of assets as follows: (i) HIMCO counts the insurance company client as one client for purposes of management of the assets described in (a) above; and (ii) because HIMCO has historically included the assets in category (b) above as private funds in HIMCO's Form ADV and Form PF filings (out of an abundance of caution), it counts each private fund separately. There are thirteen (13) of these private funds disclosed in response to Item 7.B and thus HIMCO has listed thirteen (13) clients in response to Item 5.D.(f). HIMCO also counts various affiliated pension and employee benefit plans as separate clients from the affiliates that sponsor them (such affiliates are also HIMCO clients). Due to a SEC Form ADV FAQ concerning Items 5.C.(1) and 5.D (published in October 2023), HIMCO also includes the ten (10) unit investment trusts for which it serves as portfolio consultant. HIMCO has since made the decision to exit this business but continues to provide support for certain trusts that launched prior to February 29, 2024. Finally, HIMCO manages assets for a Bermuda segregated accounts company with multiple segregated accounts, each containing assets held exclusively for the benefit of its distinct segregated account owner. HIMCO counts each of the segregated accounts as a client (seven (7) in total), as well as the investment adviser that sub-advised the mandate to HIMCO. For purposes of Item 5.D, we include the investment adviser in the "other investment adviser" category and the segregated accounts in the "other" category. We cannot include the RAUM associated with this Bermuda segregated accounts company in both categories as that would result in double counting of assets. Accordingly, in our response to Item 5.D the RAUM associated with this Bermuda segregated accounts company is included in the "other" category with the description "segregated accounts." Item 5.E.(7): HIMCO is reimbursed for costs incurred for providing investment services to its affiliates. Schedule D Section 5.K.(2): Please note that in certain instances the derivative exposure percentages provided in the charts appear unusually high. This is largely the result of the following factors: 1. HIMCO has applied the concept of "separately managed account" at the portfolio level (instead of the legal entity level). Numerous HIMCO clients have multiple portfolios that all belong to the same legal entity and HIMCO generally manages derivatives at the legal entity level (with some portfolios holding more derivatives than others). Thus when calculating gross notional exposure according to the calculation required by the form, the denominator is the portfolio's regulatory assets under management (not the legal entity's). Accordingly, the denominator for the calculation is lower than it would be if HIMCO applied the concept of separately managed account at the legal entity level. Had HIMCO applied the concept of separately managed account at the legal entity level, the percentages would have been lower. 2. Per the instructions to Form ADV, gross notional exposure must be calculated using the gross notional value of the derivatives. The instructions do not explicitly permit netting of offsetting derivative contracts, which would reduce or in some cases eliminate the exposure caused by the derivatives in question. HIMCO did not net offsetting derivative contracts when calculating gross notional exposure. Thus, for clients that have offsetting derivative positions, the percentages do not reflect net exposure related to the derivatives. 3. Many of the clients for whom HIMCO transacts in derivatives pursue strategies that involve hedging risk. The largest gross notional exposures are in portfolios that are hedging focused. Item 5.L.(1)(e) and 5.L.(2): HIMCO responds "Yes" to Items 5.L.(1)(e) and 5.L.(2) (use of third-party ratings and payment of compensation in connection with third party ratings) due to the fact that HIMCO pays for access to the eVestment analytics service through which HIMCO is able to produce peer relative exhibits based on the manager/product data in the eVestment database, and utilized such exhibit(s) as part of advertisement(s) in 2025. Item 5.L.(3): During 2025, HIMCO utilized hypothetical performance in one advertisement with an existing sophisticated institutional client. Thus, HIMCO is responding “Yes” to Item 5.L.(3). Schedule D, Section 7.A: As an investment adviser that is part of a larger holding company, HIMCO has a number of related persons that are not included in Section 7.A of Schedule D because they do not fit into one of the sixteen (16) categories of entities listed in Item 7.A. HIMCO will provide a supplemental list of these related persons upon request. Item 7.B.(1) Q.28(a): HIMCO does not engage in marketing on behalf of the Separate Account ICMG Series private funds. General: The Hartford Insurance Group, Inc. (“HIG”), parent of HIMCO, and its subsidiaries are involved in claims litigation arising in the ordinary course of business. Management expects that the ultimate liability, if any, with respect to such ordinary-course claims litigation, after consideration of provisions made for potential losses and costs of defense, will not be material to the consolidated financial condition, results of operations or cash flows of The Hartford. HIG and its subsidiaries are also involved in other kinds of individual and class actions, some of which assert claims for substantial amounts. Management expects that the ultimate liability, if any, with respect to such lawsuits, after consideration of provisions made for estimated losses, will not be material to the consolidated financial condition of The Hartford. Nonetheless, given the large or indeterminate amounts sought in certain of these actions, and the inherent unpredictability of litigation, the outcome in certain matters could, from time to time, have a material adverse effect on the Company’s results of operations or cash flows in particular quarterly or annual periods.
